

specializing in legal, accounting, and technological matters. A total of five teams will be operated.

The investigation team will review materials submitted to date and check whether there is suspicion of illegality to begin with; they will then check accounting books and relevant continue to improve the relevant system to settle problems related to apartments.