

Seoul

● Introduction

Seoul is a place of overflowing fun all day and coexists of living, breathing history and high-technological environment. Just bring your thrilling excitement. It will be beyond what you have imagined and will be a memory to keep!

● Representative Tourist Attractions

Seoul City Wall

Seoul City Wall has been built right after establishment of Joseon Dynasty and has served as a protective boundary of Seoul for 600 years. It has been received significant historical value and has been listed under 2012 UNESCO World Cultural Heritage official provisional list. The view of Seoul downtown, the harmony of city life and nature, can be seen when walking alongside the road of the wall. At the interval where the lights are installed alongside the wall, a panorama night view of Seoul can be seen.

Seoul Dulle-gil

The 157 km course encircling the area of Seoul is divided into 8 routes and each contains intermingled stories of history, culture, and ecology. The walking trails have been created for the visitors here to feel, learn, and experience for themselves of these stories. There are rest areas, book café, and shelter available for a break time. Old temples and historical sites are connected where history, culture, and ecology of Seoul can be experienced at each place.

● Visit Korea Committee Introduction

The Visit Korea Committee, the only public-private cooperation institute in the field of tourism, has been promoting '2016-2018 Visit Korea Year' campaign under the vision of "The world keeps coming back to Korea."

In particular, aiming to expand the number of foreign tourists to 20 million more quickly and to lay the groundwork for qualitative growth that corresponds to quantitative expansion, the committee has been carrying out a variety of projects via public-private collaboration in order to attract more foreign independent tourists (FIT), induce them to visit Korea again, and facilitate the development of regional tourism.
